

SUFFRAGETTES IN PRISON

Refused to Pay Fines Imposed for Raid on House of Commons and Throwing Stones.

London, July 12.—Fifteen of the suffragettes who, in the course of their raid on the house of commons June 29, indulged in the breaking of windows with stones hidden in paper parcels, went to prison for a month today rather than pay the fines inflicted by Sir Albert de Reuten of the Bow street police court.

Sir Albert commented severely on the lamentable spectacle of respectable women in the dock on charges usually associated with juvenile hoodlums. The suffragettes, most of whom made short speeches, claimed that their offenses were purely political. The course of Premier Asquith in refusing to accept their petition, they said, had made instant action necessary, and if the women were in the wrong, Home Secretary Gladstone, War Secretary Haldane and John Burns, president of the local government board, who had incited them by taunting them with the statement that they were using only "pin-prick methods," ought to be beside them in the dock.

The four suffragettes who last Saturday presented a petition to Premier Asquith, after which they were arrested and charged at the police court with disorderly conduct, today refused to give undertakings for their good behavior. They declined to pay the fines imposed and were sentenced each to three weeks in prison.

BOTHERSOME CREDITORS.

Denver, Colo., July 12.—The court-martial of Captain Clarence S. Nettles, retired, charged with failure to pay his debts, was begun here today. Among the witnesses called by the prosecution was J. J. Jennings, captain of the Commercial National bank of Columbus, O., who testified that Captain Nettles still owed that institution $24 on a loan of $72, secured about four years ago. Testimony was also introduced to show that Nettles owed a number of local firms consisting largely of firms for millinery.

According to a statement by the attorneys for the defense, they will endeavor to show that Captain Nettles has made payments on the various bills in an effort to wipe them out and that it is not a matter in which the government should interfere.

Hamilton Place, a Modern Residence Addition

This company offers for sale bungalows in the new residence thoroughfare, Hamilton Place, running north from Sixth South street between State and Second East streets. This location, so close to the city and county building and to the business district, makes these houses particularly desirable for homes.

No two bungalows are exactly alike. Each has its distinguishing style of architecture. Just enough variety has been introduced to give an artistic atmosphere to the place.

At the head of the street a unique Spanish mission arch has been erected, which adds greatly to the general attractiveness. It contains a number of windows in which lights are placed that illuminate the thoroughfare.

The street is paved, cement sidewalks, sewer connections and gas mains laid, and all houses are supplied with gas for cooking and electric lights. Sold for cash or on our monthly payment plan. Prices, $3,000.00 to $3,700.00.
